OIC'S CURIOUS RECORD ON XINJIANG

GS-2:- REGIONAL AND GLOBAL GROUPINGS

| PRESENT | In an epochal development, India became the 'Guest of Honour' at the 46th |
|--------------|--|
| CONTEXT | session of the Council of Foreign Ministers of the Organisation of Islamic |
| | Cooperation (OIC) held in Abu Dha bi in March. |
| ABOUT THE | ✓ Organisation of Islamic Cooperation is an international |
| OIC | organization founded in 1969, consisting of 57 member states. |
| | ✓ It is the second largest inter-governmental organization after the |
| | United Nations. |
| | ✓ The organisation states that it is "the collective voice of the Muslim" |
| | world" and works to "safeguard and protect the interests of the Muslim |
| | world in the spirit of promoting international peace and harmony". |
| | ✓ The OIC has permanent delegations to the United Nations and the |
| | European Union. |
| | ✓ Permanent Secretariat is in Jeddah, Saudi Arabia. |
| SIGNIFICANCE | ✓ The invitation to address the OIC can be seen as a major diplomatic |
| OF | victory as this is the first time that an Indian EAM was invited. |
| INVITATION | ✓ This can be seen as a part of India's efforts to isolate Pakistan |
| | diplomatically. |
| | ✓ In 1969, the invite to then union minister Fakhruddin Ali Ahmed was |
| | withdrawn at Pakistan's insistence. |
| | ✓ The official announcement by the UAE mentioned, that the invitation to |
| | India was extended in recognition of India's global political stature as |
| | well as its time-honored and deep-rooted cultural and historical legacy |
| | and its important Islamic component. |
| OIC STAND | ✓ OIC commend the efforts of the People's Republic of China in providing |
| ON BEIJING'S | care to its Muslim citizens although Human Rights Watch report issued |
| POLICIES IN | in September 2018 had also criticised Beijing's policies in Xinjiang. |
| XINJIANG. | ✓ The organisation remains mindful of how far it can go with its criticism |
| | of Beijing considering that China is a major power, a permanent |
| | member of the UN Security Council, a large market for hydrocarbons |
| | and a source of arms and investment. |
| | ✓ As China's continued import of oil from Iran suggests, countries under |
| | U.S. pressure and sanctions often turn to China for relief. In return, |

| | they do their best to guard China's interests at the OIC. |
|-------------|--|
| INDIA & OIC | ✓ The OIC offers a platform for Pakistan and India to play out their |
| | respective positions on a number of thorny issues and in the process |
| | involve the forum for de-escalation purposes. |
| | ✓ Both India and the member countries of OIC have shared an interest in |
| | blunting the edge of religious extremism and terrorism. |
| | ✓ Equally important has been the region's growing economic and energy |
| | interdependence with India, which is emerging as the world's third- |
| | largest economy and one of the biggest hydrocarbon importers |
| | and labour exporters. |
| | ✓ As the region's geopolitics enters a turbulent period, the potential for |
| | India as a military partner is also coming into view |
| 14/42/ | |
| WAY FORWARD | ✓ With better engagement with the Arab countries, India should aim to |
| | expand areas of mutually beneficial cooperation, minimize areas of |
| | misperception or divergence of interests, and maximize advantages |
| | that may accrue to India. |
| | ✓ India has good reason to be pleased that Pakistan can no longer veto |
| | India's engagement with critical states of the Middle East. |
| | √ For the emerging forces of political moderation and social |
| | modernization in the Middle East, India is a more attractive partner |
| | than Pakistan. However, India has to carefully balance its strategy |
| | towards the Islamic world by openly form stronger and better |
| | diplomatic ties with an overtly religion-based organization. |
| | ✓ But here is a paradox: In embracing OIC, an overtly religion-based |
| | organization, Delhi reduces the salience of faith in India's strategy |
| | towards the Islamic world. |
